ABOUT THIS BOOK

The Crux of Refugee Resettlement envisions a more humane future for refugee resettlement. Combining anthropology with a variety of professional perspectives (education, health care, theology, administration, politics, and social work) ethnography is used to demonstrate the efficacy of programs and interventions that create and nurture social capital in culturally specific and accessible ways.

ABOUT THE EDITORS

Andrew Nelson is assistant professor of anthropology at the University of North Texas.

Alexander Rödlach is associate professor of medical anthropology and psychiatry at Creighton University.

Roos Willems is cultural anthropologist at the University of Leuven.
